AN ACT CONCERNING OCCUPYING CLAIMANTS OF LAND.

IN FORCE.

FEB. 23, 1819.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the people of the state of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all and every person who may hereafter be evicted from any land for which he can show a plain and connected title in law or equity, deduced from the record of some public office, without actual notice of an adverse title in like manner derived from record, shall be exempt and free from all and every species of action, writ or prosecution for, or on account of any rents or profits, or damages, which shall have been done, accrued or incurred at any time prior to receipt of actual notice of the adverse claim, by which the eviction may be effected, provided such person obtained peaceable possession of the land.

SEC. 2. That the court, who shall pronounce and give judgment of eviction, either in law or equity, shall at the time nominate seven fit persons, any five of whom shall have power, and it shall be their duty to go on the premises, and after viewing the same, on oath or affirmation, to assess the value of all such lasting and valuable improvements which shall have been made thereon, prior to the receipt of such notice as aforesaid; and also, to assess all damages the land may have sustained by the commission of any kind of waste, or by deduction of soil by cultivation, or otherwise during the occupancy of the person evicted, and subtract the same from the estimated value of the said improvements, which assessment, signed and sealed by the persons making the same, shall be by them lodged with the clerk of the court wherein they were nominated, before the next ensuing term, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient; and at the next court, after such assessment, it shall be entered up as a judgment in favour of the person evicted, and against the successful claimant of the land by the clerk, upon which judgment, execution shall immediately be issued by the clerk, if directed by the person evicted, unless the successful claimant shall give bond and security to be judged of by the court, to the person evicted, and to be taken at the time of entering up such judgment, conditioned to pay the same within twelve months from the date thereof, with five per cent. interest thereon: Provided, the balance shall ultimately be in favour of such occupying claimant, according to the directions and provisions of this act, which bond shall have the force of a judgment, and at the expiration of twelve months aforesaid, an execution shall be issued upon the same by the clerk of the court in which it was taken, at the request of the party entitled thereto, on oath being made that the same is yet due, should the balance be in favour of the successful claimant, judgment in like manner shall be entered up in his favour, against the other party, for the amount of the same, upon which execution may be issued as aforesaid, unless bond and security be given to such claimant, which may be acted upon in the manner before directed, and to declare what shall be the law between adverse claimants, under distinct titles of the kinds aforesaid after notice.

SEC. 3. That the persons nominated by the court as aforesaid, when making an assessment shall carefully distinguish between such improvements, as were made on the land prior to notice, and those which were made after notice; and when making an assessment, they shall also take into consideration, all such necessary and lasting improvements as shall have been made on the lands, after the receipt of such notice as aforesaid, and shall ascertain the amount of the value thereof, and they shall also take into consideration and ascertain the amount of the value of the rent and profits arising from the whole of the improvements on the land from the time that notice of such adverse claim was received by such occupying claimant, and then after taking the amount of one from the other, the balance shall be added or subtracted from the amount of the value of the improvements which shall have been made before the receipt of the notice aforesaid, as the nature of the case shall require.

SEC. 4. That the commissioners shall also estimate the value of the lands in dispute, exclusive of any improvements that shall have been made thereon, and make report of the amount of such valuation to the court, and if the value of the improvements shall exceed such estimated value of the land in dispute, in that case, it shall and may be lawful for the proprietor of the better title, to transfer or convey, as the nature of the case may require, his better title to the occupying claimant, and thereupon judgment shall be entered up in his favour against the occupying claimant, for such estimated value, upon which an execution may issue, unless the occupying claimant shall give bond and security to be approved of by the court, to pay the amount of such judgment, within one year after the person transferring or conveying as aforesaid, with interest from the date, which bond shall have the force of a judgment, and if not paid at the expiration of the year, an execution may issue, in the manner before directed by this act: Provided, that the proprietor of the better title shall, in every such case, at the time of entering up judgment in his favour, give bond and security to be approved of by the court, to the occupying claimant, to refund the amount of such judgment, in case the land so transferred or conveyed, shall ever thereafter be taken from him by any other prior or better claim.

SEC. 5. That the persons nominated by the court, in virtue of this act, shall be called commissioners, and shall respectively take an oath or affirmation, to do equal right to the parties in controversy; and shall also have power and authority to call witnesses, and administer the necessary oaths, and to examine them for the ascertainment of any fact material in the enquiry and assessment by this act directed.

SEC. 6. That the said commissioners in making every estimate of value by virtue of this act, shall state separately the result of each, and the court shall have power to make such allowance to the said commissioners in any case, as shall seem just, which allowance shall be taxed and collected as costs: Provided, that this act shall not be extended to affect or impair the obligation of contracts, or to authorize the occupying claimant to be twice paid for his improvements; and in all cases where the occupying claimant is paid for his improvements by any other person than the proprietor of the better title, such person shall have the same redress as is allowed to the occupying claimant.

SEC. 7. That the court shall have the same power to proceed by appointing commissioners to assess the value of improvements, and the damages by the commission of any kind of waste, by reduction of soil by cultivation or otherwise, during the occupancy of the person evicted in case of arbitration, or by consent of the parties, on motion without suit.

SEC. 8. That notice of any adverse claim or title to the land within the meaning of this act, shall have been given by bringing a suit, either in law or equity for the same, by the one or other of the parties, and may hereafter be given by bringing a suit as aforesaid, or by delivering an attested copy of the entry, survey or patent, from which he derives his title or claim, or leaving any such copy with the party, his wife, or other free person above the age of sixteen years, on the plantation: Provided however, that notice given by the delivery of an attested copy as aforesaid, shall be void, unless suit is brought within one year thereafter; Provided, that in no case shall the proprietor of the better title be obliged to pay to the occupying claimant for improvements made after notice, more than what is equal to the rents and profits aforesaid.

And every inspector shall also take the following oath or affirmation, in open court, at the time he executes his bond, to-wit: " You do solemnly swear, (or affirm, as the case may be,) that you will diligently and carefully view, and examine all tobacco brought to the warehouse, whereof you are appointed inspector, and that you will not receive or pass any tobacco which is not in your opinion sound, well conditioned and merchantable, free from trash, and that in classing the same, you will according to your best skill and judgment, make a true and correct discrimination between the first and second qualities, and that you will not receive, pass, or stamp, any hogshead or cask of tobacco, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the laws in such case made and provided, nor refuse any tobacco that in your judgment is sound, well conditioned and merchantable, and free from trash, and that you will not change, alter, or give out any tobacco, other than such hogsheads, or casks, for which the receipt to be taken was given, but that you will in all things well and faithfully discharge your duty in the office of inspector, according to the best of your skill and judgment, and according to law, without fear, favour or affection, malice, or partiality: So help you God." And if any person shall presume to execute his office of inspector, before he shall have given such bond and taken such oath, aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay five hundred dollars for the use of the county.

SEC. 4. When any tobacco shall be refused by the inspector, the proprietor thereof shall be at liberty to separate the good from the bad for re-inspection, but if he refuse so to do, then it shall be the duty of the said inspector to weigh, prize, and cooper up the same, and mark the gross weight on each cask, and take care of and deliver the same to the owner, for which the inspector shall receive one dollar for every hogshead so delivered, in addition to the inspection fees hereinafter men-

TREASURER'S REPORT.

 TREASURER'S OFFICE,
 Vandalia, December 8, 1828. } }

SIR:—

In conformity with the law requiring a biennial report from the State Treasurer, I have the honor to submit to the General Assembly, a statement of the monthly receipts and disbursements at the Treasury, from the date of my appointment up to the 30th of November last, and an account current shewing the balance in the Treasury on the latter day.

The balance reported on hand by the Treasurer, is less than the balance reported by the Auditor, in consequence of my having made a charge for clerk hire, which not being provided for by any existing law, must necessarily be submitted directly to the decision of the General Assembly. In relation to that charge, I respectfully offer the following explanation. The salary of the State Treasury is $800 a year; but the amount actually received by me, has been reduced by the depreciation of state paper, to a sum between $650 and $700 per year. The duties of the Treasurer's office require the constant service of two competent clerks, with the occasional assistance of a third, and as this amount of labor could not be paid for out of the sum appropriated to me, without absorbing nearly the whole of my own compensation, I was under the unpleasant necessity of choosing between two evils, viz: of neglecting a portion of the duties of my office, or of employing a sufficient number of clerks on my own responsibility, and depending on the justice and liberality of the General Assembly, for repayment of the sum thus expended. I adopted the latter course: and I now respectfully lay the subject before the General Assembly, with a request that, on examination, they will make such disposition of it as may be right.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JAMES HALL.
